Raising a concern/complaint

If a candidate (or parent/carer) has a general concern or complaint about the centre's delivery or administration of a qualification, Hedingham School and Sixth Form encourages an informal resolution in the first instance.

This can be undertaken by:

- expressing the concern or complaint in person, by telephone or in writing or by email to the Head of Centre, Mr Paul Finch

If a concern or complaint fails to be resolved informally, the candidate (or parent/carer) is then at liberty to make a formal complaint.

How to make a formal complaint

All documentation relating to the submission of a formal complaint is available from, and should be returned to:

- the Head of Centre, Mr Paul Finch

Formal complaints will be logged and acknowledged within:

- five working days where possible.

To make a formal complaint, candidates (or parents/carers) must:

- submit the complaint in writing by completing a complaints and appeals form which is available from the Exams Officer. Completed forms should be returned to the Head of Centre, Mr Paul Finch.

How a formal complaint is investigated

The Head of Centre will further investigate or appoint a member of the Senior Leadership Team (who is not involved in the grounds for complaint and has no personal interest in the outcome) to investigate the complaint and report on the findings and conclusion.

The findings and conclusion of any investigation will be provided to the complainant within:

- four working weeks.

Internal appeals procedure

Following the outcome, if the complainant remains dissatisfied and believes there are clear grounds, an appeal can be submitted.

To submit an appeal, candidates (or parents/carers) must:

- be submitted in writing by completing a complaints and appeals form

Appeals will be logged and acknowledged within:

- five working days where possible.

The appeal will be referred to:

- the Chair of Governors (or a special Committee of the Governing Body) for consideration

It will be the responsibility of Mr Paul Finch to inform the appellant of the final conclusion in accordance with the internal appeals procedure.
