Geography Reading List

- 1  Prisoners of Geography
Tim Marshall
Splitting the world into 10 distinct regions suggests our key political driver continues to be our physical geography. It includes why China and India will never fall into conflict. One of the best books about geopolitics you could imagine!
- 2  Factfulness
Hans Rosling
A radical new explanation of why we systematically get the answers to questions about development, revealing ten instincts that distort our perspective. Sweeps aside our worst instincts and makes the world a sunnier place.
- 3  The Almighty Dollar
Dharshini David
Follows $1 from a shopping trip in Texas, via China's central bank, Nigerian railroads, the oilfields of Iraq and beyond to reveal the complex relationships of our new globalised world.
- 4  Connectography
Parag Mehta
A guide through the emerging global network civilisation in which megacities complete over connectivity and borders are increasingly irrelevant. Shows how a new foundation of connectivity is pulling together a world that appears to be falling apart.
- 5  Divided
Tim Marshall
There are many reasons why we erect walls, because we are divided in many ways: wealth, race, religion, politics. Understanding what has divided us, past and present, is essential to understanding much of what's going on in the world today.
- 6  Off the Map
Alastair Bonnett
From forgotten enclaves to floating islands, from hidden villages to New York gutter spaces, this book charts the hidden corners of our planet. Topophilia, the love of place, is a fundamental part of what it is to be human.
- 7  The Silk Roads
Peter Frankopan
Our understanding of the world is shaped by the narrow focus on western Europe and the US. An antidote to Eurocentric accounts of the world, examining several continents and centuries and the factors that influenced the flow of goods and ideas.
- 8  Worth Dying For
Tim Marshall
The histories, the power and the politics of the symbols that unite and divide us. We wave them and burn them and still, in the 21st century, we die for them. We need to understand the symbols that people are rallying around.
- 9  Adventures in the Anthropocene
Gala Vince
Our planet is said to be crossing into the Age of Humans. This book sees what life is really like for people on the frontline of the planet we've made, from artificial glaciers to electrified reefs.
- 10  10 Billion
Stephen Emmott
It's about our failure: failure as individuals, the failure of business and the failure of our politicians. It is about an unprecedented planetary emergency. It's about the future of us.
- 11  The Bottom Billion
Paul Collier
Explains four traps that prevent the homelands of the world's billion poorest people from growing and receiving the benefits of globalisation - civil war, natural resources, being landlocks and ineffective governance.
- 12  10 Billion
Danny Dorling
Explores how we got to 10 billion and the key issues that we face in the coming decades including how to deal with scarcity of resources and how our cities will grow and how we should prepare for population decline.
- 13  Peoplequake
Fred Pearce
The population bomb is being defused. Half the world's women are having two children or fewer and within a generation, the world's population will be falling, and we will all be getting very old. This book confronts our demographic demons.
- 14  This is the Way the World Ends
Jeff Nesbit
Our world is in trouble - right now. This book tells the real stories of the substantial impacts to Earth's systems unfolding across each continent from longer droughts in the Middle East to the monsoon season shrinking in India. A blueprint for real-time, workable solutions we can tackle together.

A second wireframe of a Twitter text input form, identical to the one above.

A wireframe of an Instagram post form. It has a dark blue header with the word 'Instagram' and a refresh icon. Below the header is a blue smiley face icon, followed by a large rounded rectangular area for the post image. At the bottom, there are three horizontal lines for a caption and a blue speech bubble icon. A navigation bar at the very bottom contains icons for home, search, post, activity, and profile.

A wireframe of a news article layout, modeled after the BBC News website. It features a red header with the BBC logo, navigation links (Home, UK, World, Business, Politics, Tech, Science, Health, Education, Entertainment & Arts, Video & Audio, More), and a search bar. Below the header is a 'NEWS' section with a 'Find local news' dropdown. The main content area is titled 'Title/ Topic/ Event' and includes a '5 hours ago UK' timestamp and a 'Share' button. The article body consists of a large image placeholder followed by several horizontal lines of text. On the right side, there are three vertical sections: 'Top Stories', 'Features', and 'Related Articles', each with a grey placeholder.
